Sustainability Workshop by CITA-APLF at SFBC

March 13, 2009 (Hong Kong)

PRIME SOURCE FORUM HONG KONG

THE ANNUAL MEETING PLACE FOR THE APPAREL INDUSTRY

Workshops : 31 March 2009 | Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre
Forum : 1-2 April 2009

A Sustainability Workshop will be held on the morning of March 31, the day of this three-day event to be held at the Hong Kong Convention & Exhibition Centre.

The Sustainable Fashion Business Consortium (SFBC) will join forces with the Clothing Industry Training Authority (CITA) and APLF Ltd., the Organisers of Prime Source Forum, to offer this important and highly topical Workshop.

The event organisers aim to offer a platform that will allow those in the apparel industry to discuss how they might make their businesses more sustainable. All delegates at PSF are entitled to take part in this half-day Workshop.

Pat-Nie Woo, Chairman of the SFBC said, "The Organisers of Prime Source Forum have proactively approached us on outlining the programme. They understand the significance of this issue in the textile and apparel sector and are making conscious steps to arrange a workshop and a forum for open discussion on this topic from all stakeholders, which includes manufacturers, sourcing offices, brands and retail, government agencies and NGOs. I feel that the key here is open dialogue and Prime Source Forum and Workshop will really help the industry achieve it this year".

Woo added, "We expect that this Sustainability Workshop will be able to offer some general
