Ceramics, Tiles & Sanitary Ware China - Fruitful Results with a Roadmap to Success

Ceramics, Tiles and Sanitary Ware China 2011 achieved an exciting closing on April 1 2011, with 482 exhibitors and around 40,000 visitors in an area of 46,188 sqm. The show featured famous international brands and attracted high-quality visitors including interior designers, contractors, hotel developers, real estate agents and architects. The show was honored by the presence of the Spanish pavilion organized by the association of Tiles of Spain (ASCER) that chose to exhibit on this fairground as their first time to enter the China market.

The show has been running successfully for 12 years and features bathtubs, toilets, faucets, eco-friendly plumbing products, bathroom furnishing and accessories, ceramic tiles, porcelain tiles, ceramic designs, mosaic, stone and much more.

Different activities and events were held and the theme for this year was "New Eco Live". The festival showcased, examined and discussed the relationship between energy-saving, building materials and interior design. Participants experienced the beauty of eco-friendly design through forums, display areas and awards. The most popular events included: Eco-building & Urban Development Forum; 2011 Low-Carbon Summit on Sustainable Development; Area Dialogue & 2011 Golden Bund Award Ceremony; Conversation with Chinese and Foreign Designers, and others.
